ABOUT LOVED TWICE

Founded in 2005 to help the infant victims of Hurricane Katrina, Loved Twice has since clothed thousands of newborns-in-need nationwide with warm essential garments.

Our nonprofit collects gently-used baby clothing, sorts these essential garments into boy and girl wardrobes-in-a-boxes, and distributes the boxes through licensed social workers in hospitals, shelters, and clinics in underserved communities.

Each infant receives approximately 75 items in sizes 0-12 months. Including: newborn onesies, sleepers, hats, booties, books, blankets and access to an educational new parent kit. .

The average household income for the families receiving clothing is less than $16,000.
All of Loved Twice's clients live below 200% of the national poverty level.
The majority are uninsured single mothers.
